Please indicate in 200 words (one page or less) why you are interested in attending this professional development program and how you can use what you will learn in your classroom.

If accepted for this professional development program, I agree to complete the preparatory short digital readings and activities, attend the January 21st and February 18th Saturday workshops, and develop and submit two lesson plans by on or before March 31st 2017. All participants who successfully complete this professional development program will receive a $225 stipend and East Asia curriculum materials. Teachers who successfully complete this program will be certified as National Consortium for Teaching About Asia alumni and receive 30 hours of professional development credit. Graduate UTC education course credit is an option for interested participants.

I also agree to mail Jeffrey Melnik a deposit acceptance check for $25.00 written to the UTC Asia Program if I am accepted for the program. Checks will not be cashed and will be returned to each participant at the conclusion of Workshop 1 on Saturday, January 21st. This deposit check guarantees your space.

Please mail, email, or fax this application to: Jeffrey Melnik, 305 Hunter Hall, Dept. 2222, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, Chattanooga, TN, 37403; edast@utc.edu; or Fax: 423-425-5441. Office phone number is 423-425-2118. Applicants who are accepted will be promptly notified so they can then mail a deposit check that will secure their acceptance.
