

Change of Major Request for F-1 International Students at UTC

Please TYPE your responses on this form. The Office of International Student and Scholar Services does NOT accept handwritten forms.

If you are an international student on an F-1 visa and wish to change your major, you must first apply for a change of major through your academic advisor. Once your change of major has been approved, you must request a new I-20 within 10 days by completing this form and submitting it to the Office of International Student and Scholar Services.

Type your answers into the required fields and email this form as a PDF attachment to international@utc.edu using your UTC email address.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services places responsibility on the student to understand and comply with immigration law. Failure to comply with these regulations will mean the loss of your F-1 international student status. This has very serious consequences. For example, you could be barred from reentering the U.S. for up to 10 years, depending on the length of your status violation.
